Notice

(I) The Centralized Admission Committee of the University has announced that a one time opportunity may be provided to such candidates who could not report during the stipulated time for the first three Admission Lists. Any candidate whose names appeared in the first, second or third admission lists for the B.Ed. Special Education-V.I. Programme for the academic year 2018-19, but who were unable to Report during the stipulated period of time at the University of Delhi for verification of their documents, are now being given a last opportunity to seek admission subject to availability of seats in their subject and categories.

Such candidates should note the following:

(i) The provision shall be made for such candidates to opt online through their admission portal, since most of the outstation candidates who reported late have already gone back to their home towns. There will be an online provision in the portal of the candidate to opt for “RECONSIDER MY APPLICATION”.

(ii) The candidate must tick that he/she has not reported during the schedule and shall be considered for admission in the next list.

(iii) All such candidates who will opt online will be considered for Admission under the Fourth Admission List as per their merit depending upon the vacant seats category wise.

(iv) The admission portal shall be opened to opt for the same from 13th August till 16th August 2018.

(v) It may not be possible to allot such students the institution /college of their choice. It was noted that mere opting by the candidate for reconsideration of admission does not guarantee admission if the seats are not available and/ or if other eligibility criteria are not fulfilled.

(II) The PG Portal will be opened to update qualifying marks by the candidates from 14th August 2018 to 16th August 2018.

(III) The deadline for submission of required/pending documents for admissions in B.Ed. programme has been extended to 23.08.2018.
