Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) Programme

PROSPECTUS – 2019

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) Programme in Education

The Doctoral Programme in Education aims to develop an understanding of research, public policy and educational theory and practice, and the relationships among them. It begins with a study of specific courses followed by rigorous research leading to a dissertation.

The course work gives students the opportunity to study individualized courses that are tailored to suit their research interests. These could be a combination of courses designed within the Department of Education and those chosen from courses across disciplines offered by other departments of the University of Delhi, including courses on qualitative and quantitative research methods. The doctoral program is based on the premise that rigorous research will help develop a cadre of professionals who can develop specialised knowledge in areas of educational practice and public policy. The programme prepares students to assume roles as university faculty members, senior-level educational leaders, professional practitioners, policy makers, and researchers.

Prospective students should look into the research interests of the Department faculty, and discuss courses that can be offered in order to complete the application for admission.

Eligibility Conditions:

The candidate must have obtained a Masters or an M.Phil. Degree in Education of the University of Delhi, or any other recognized University to be eligible for admission to the Ph.D. programme.

The candidate must have obtained either a minimum of 55% marks or an equivalent grade in the M.Phil. Degree or a minimum of 55% marks or an equivalent grade in the masters degree.

Note: Rounding off of fraction is not allowed while computing the percentage of marks of eligibility.

Admission to the Ph.D. Programme is governed by the Amendments to Ordinances VI, VI-A and VI-B (M.Phil. and Ph.D.) dated August 9, 2017 of the University of Delhi.

Total Number of Seats: 33 (Thirty three)
