Dear Prof. Namita Ranganathan,

The Council for Social Development (CSD) is planning to organize a National Seminar on "Universalisation of Secondary Education" on 14 and 15 July 2018 in the India International Centre, New Delhi-110003.

The discussions would be around the following themes:

- (i) Universalisation of Secondary Education towards Integrated Model of School Education (Extension of RTE to Secondary Education)
- (ii) Growth of Secondary Education in India and States
- (iii) Inequalities in Secondary Education
- (iv) Quality of Secondary Education
- (v) Public versus Private Schools
- (vi) Secondary Education, Skill Development and Transition to Labour Market

Interested scholars are cordially invited to participate in the Seminar. The programme begins at 10 am on 14th July and concludes around 5.30pm on 15th July. You may please circulate it among the interested scholars.

The Seminar will be followed by Durgabhai Deshmukh Memorial Lecture to be delivered by Professor Rehman Sobhan, Chairman, Centre for Policy Dialogue and Former Director General Bangladesh Institute of Development Studies. The Lecture will be at 6pm on 15 July 2018 at India International Centre.

In view of limitations on space, interested scholars are required to confirm their participation, by writing to: Ms Jaya Nair at jaya@csdindia.org, who will also be pleased to provide further information.

With kind regards

Jandhyala B G Tilak
