

Name	:	Ms. Asha Arora
Designation	:	TGT (Science) since 1998
Qualifications
a) Educational	:	B.Sc. (Honours) Botany
b) Professional	:	B.Ed

Programmes/ workshops/seminars/conferences

1. Worked as Lead Teacher for project 2000+ - a collaborative long term project of UNESCO and CSEC in the framework of STL (Science and Technological Literacy for All), 2000-2001
2. Worked as member of various project team and developed learning material for middle school science, 2004-2005.
3. Actively participated as Teacher Fellow in the Research Fellowship program for teachers under USRN organized by RRCCE, Delhi University, 2007-2008.
4. Attended one day workshop on 'Cultural Heritage of India' organized by Archeological Survey of India during World Heritage Week, 2011.
5. Participated in one day workshop on 'Classroom Observation and Supervision' jointly organized by MINDS project, CIE and British Council, 2011.
6. Actively participated in three day workshop on 'Capacity Building of Teachers' pedagogical concern: Popularization of Science, 2012.
7. Attended two days National Conference on 'Stress Reducing Skills- Scientific Update' organized by GMDA (Global Meditating Doctors Association), 2014.

Publications

1. Ascript titled 'Garbage –a misplaced resource' as a result of project 2000+ in the journal, 2001.
2. A paper titled 'Mere Shikhan Anubhav' in the booklet as compilation of papers presented in the seminar on Education: Perspective of School Teachers, 2001.
3. Co-authored SCERT science textbooks (grade VI to VIII), 2004-2005.
4. A research paper –'Project Based Learning: Its feasibility and constraints'.
5. An article titled on reading 'Paulo-Friere' in the journal contemporary Education Dialogue, 2007.

Other details if any

1. CSEC recorded a film of the project done by the students on 'Garbage – a misplaced Resource' under my guidance, 2001.
2. Guided students of grade VIII to present the work done in the PBL, Project Based Learning, 2007-2008. Further RRCEE recorded films of the work done.
3. Presented a paper titled 'Motivational Strategies' in the intra school seminar, 2012.
4. Guide students for science fair every year.