DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION - DOE (CIE)

The Department of Education, University of Delhi, formerly known as Central Institute of Education (CIE), is one of the first major institutions of professional learning and research in Education that was established immediately after independence. The first Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and the first Education Minister, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, took considerable interest in the establishment of this institution in 1947 and its progress in its early years. Maulana Azad visualized the function of CIE not merely to 'turn out teachers who will be 'model teachers', but to evolve into a research centre for solving new educational problems of the country'. Over the past few decades, CIE has grown into a pace-setting institution in teacher education and research in education. Recognized as the Institute of Advance Studies in Education (lASE) and having launched the Maulana Azad Centre for Elementary and Social Education (MACESE), CIE has shaped its unique philosophy which finds reflection in all its academic programmes. DoE has hostel facilities for men and women candidates who need to apply separately once the candidate has got admission in DoE. Please see Hostel Prospectus for further information. The nearest station to reach DoE (CIE) is 'Vishwavidyalaya' on the Yellow Line of the DelhiMetro.

LADY IRWIN COLLEGE (LIC)

Accredited by NAAC with A+ grade, Lady Irwin College received 'Asia's Best Brand Award' in the 'Best Teacher Training Institution' category in 2016 at Bangkok. The College has also been awarded the 'Nina Sibal Award' in 2014 for Special Education. Lady Irwin College a constituent college of University of Delhi is a college only for women. Special Education (ID), for students from all streams since 2007. Before that since 1932, Lady Irwin College had a Diploma in teaching of Home Science. The College was established under the patronage of Lady Dorothy Irwin, by men and women concerned with national issues and the education of women. Among them were the Maharanis of Baroda and Bhopal, Sarojini Naidu, Rajkumari Amrit Kaur, Annie Besant, Kamala Devi Chattopadhyay, Margaret Cousins and Sir Ganga Ram Kaula to name a few. Established in 1932, the college has been a template for over 200 colleges and schools offering the discipline of Home Science in India and neighbouring countries, providing guidance in development of curricula, programmes and infrastructure, now for over 87 years.

Over the years, the college has added bachelors', masters' and doctoral degrees in the field of Home Science. It also provides facilities for community outreach programmes, inter-college and international exchanges and networking, workshops and seminars, public events, sports and recreation. Since its inception, the staff and students of the college provide research advice and community extension services in food and nutrition, resource management, human development, and textiles and clothing. The college has a prestigious program 'The Raj Kumari Amrit Kaur Child Study Center' that houses Play school, Crèche, Early intervention center in disabilities and day care. It is a true example of inclusive education from formative years which provides an excellent opportunity for observations for the students of the Department of Education. The buildings of the college have been classified and protected as heritage sites. The college has well equipped laboratories and classrooms and library with about more than 57,000 published documents and above 200 E-documents. The campus is wi-fi enabled and covered with CCTV surveillance. The Lady Irwin College has a Hostel which is well equipped with modern facilities and can accommodate about 200 students from undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral programmes. The nearest metro station to reach Lady Irwin College is 'Mandi House' Metro Station on the BlueLine of the Delhi Metro.

MAHARSHI VALMIKI COLLEGE OF EDUCATION (MVCE)

Accredited by NAAC with A grade, Maharshi Valmiki College of Education (MVCE) is a co-educational institution established in the year 1995 by the Govt of NCT of Delhi as a Constituent College of University of Delhi to cater to the long standing need for providing avenues for pre-service elementary and secondary teacher education programmes for the aspiring students in Delhi. Initially known as College of Education, the college assumed its present name Maharshi Valmiki College of Education in the year 1997 drawing inspiration from the ideals of the great teacher Valmiki.

Marking a humble beginning with its Bachelor of Education programme with only 38 students from Humanities and Social Science categories in 1995, the college got initiated into the process of shaping its promising profile under the inspirational leadership of the philosopher, artist and teacher late Professor R.P. Sharma, Former Head & Dean, Faculty of Education, University of Delhi, who took over as its Founder Principal (Officer on Special Duty) on September 21st 1995. The college was formallyinaugurated by Shri Madan Lal Khurana, the then Chief Minister of Delhi on November 16th 1995.

With a team of committed teachers on its faculty, the college presently has all the facilities needed for imparting quality teacher education programme. A well-established library with adequate reading space and more than 11,000 books; well-established physics, chemistry, biology, psychology and computer laboratories; resource centre with good facilities; and adequate space for all other indoor and outdoor activities etc. is available in the college. The college focuses on instilling quality and bringing diversity in its teacher education programme. The nearest stations to reach MVCE are 'Shastri Park' on the Red Line and 'Laxmi Nagar' on the Blue Line of the Delhi Metro.

SHYAMA PRASAD MUKHERJI COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (SPMC)

Shyama Prasad Mukherji College strives for developing an all-round personality of all the students. The aim of the college is to facilitate positive thinking and courage of conviction in women to enable them to take on the different challenges of the modern world. This is a multidisciplinary college established in 1969. The college has a spacious building with sprawling lawn and play grounds and boasts of state of the art infrastructure. It has a well-stocked library with an enviable collection of books and journals. There is a fully air conditioned auditorium with a seating capacity of 1200. Along with these, it has a medical room, a canteen and two fully equipped computer laboratories. Shyama Prasad Mukherji College has a Family Counseling Centre which provides counseling, referral and rehabilitation services to students to help them develop better coping skills. Every year, a highly active Students' Union organizes various cultural festivals like Srijan. Prizes and Scholarships are awarded to meritorious and outstanding students on the basis of the examination results and their all-round performance. Shyama Prasad Mukherji College is the only college in University of Delhi that runs both B.El.Ed. and B.Ed. courses under the guidance of highly qualified and competent faculty with visiting faculty and resource persons from India and abroad. An annual seminar is conducted every year inviting paper presentations on themes that necessitate meaningful dialogue among academicians, research scholars, faculty members and student teachers related to issues and challenges of education and learning. The nearest station to reach SPMC is 'Shivaji Park' on the Green Line of the Delhi Metro.

Candidates can apply for ONLY ONE COURSE IN A SLOT. The candidate should read the Information Bulletin carefully and identify the course and the University for which he/she is applying and check the eligibility of the University where they are seeking admission. Each question paper will have 100 Questions. Candidate has to choose language English or Hindi for the General Paper. (Choose Carefully). Each question carries 04 (four) marks. For each correct response, candidate will get 04 (four) marks. For each incorrect response, 01 (one) mark will be deducted from the total score. Un-answered/un-attempted response will be given no marks. To answer a question, the candidate needs to choose one option as correct option. However, after the process of Challenges of the Answer Key, in case there are multiple correct options or change in key, only those candidates who have attempted it correctly as per the revised Answer key will be awarded marks. In case a Question is dropped due to some technical error, full marks shall be given to all the candidates irrespective of the fact who have attempted it or not.

8. ALLOCATION OF INSTITUTIONS AND GETTING ADMISSION

A. Display of Admission List with allocation of institutions

On the basis of the performance in the entrance test, a merit list of all candidates, who take the test, will be displayed on the Website of the University/Department. Depending on the rank in the merit list of their respective category of the candidate, subject category, availability of seats and preference of the institutions, candidates will be allocated to different institutions. Display of name in the merit list does not indicate final selection for admission. The overall merit list will comprise of candidates of all categories. No one will be excluded from the same. The Unreserved (UR) merit list will also include SC/ST/OBC/PwD/CW candidates in the order of merit.

In case of a tie, the University guidelines will be followed.

Each subject category may have different merit list based on the rank obtained in the Entrance Test and availability of seats in different subject categories.

Being a unique professional programme where allotment of institution to a successful candidate involves various factors such as merit in the entrance test, candidate's category, subject category, availability of teaching subjects across institutions and candidate's preference of institutions, hence, candidates are not allowed to change their allotted institution. Similarly, no change of institution is allowed from one admission list to subsequent admission lists. Any mutual swapping of institutions amongst candidates is also not allowed. The Faculty of Education treats all institutions as equal with dedicated staff and adequate support system.

Candidates should check Department of Education website and DU website for regular updates on Schedule of B.Ed. Admissions Lists. New Admission lists will be generated till all the seats are filled.
